 The Conquest of Constantinople, the Appearance of ad-Dajjal, and the Descent of Isa

عليه السلام

On the authority of Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه, the Prophet ﷺ said:
"The Last Hour would not not be established until the Romans land at al-A'maq or Dabiq. An army consisting of the best (soldiers) of the people on earth at that time would come from Medinah (to oppose them). When they arrange would come from Medīnah (to oppose them). When they arrange themselves in ranks, the Romans would say: 'Do not stand between us and those (muslims) who took prisoners from amongst us. Let us fight them.' The muslims would say: 'Nay, by Allāh, we shall never turn away from you, and from our brothers, so that you may fight them.' Then, they would fight and a third (part) of the army, whom Allāh will never forgive, would flee. A third (part of the army) which would consist of excellent martyrs in Allāh's Eyes, would be killed. The remaining third, who would never be put to the test, would win and so they would be the conquerors of Constantinople. As they are busy distributing the spoils of war (amongst themselves), after having hung up their swords on the olive trees, shaytān would cryout: 'ad-Dajjal has taken your place among your families' They would come hung up their swords on the olive trees, shaytān would cryout: 'ad-Dajjal has taken your place among your families.' They would come out, but it would be of no avail.

When they reach Syria, shaytān would emerge, and as they are preparing themselves for battle, drawing up the ranks, the time of salah would come, and then Isa عليه السلام

السلام, the son of Mary, would descend and would lead them in salah. When the enemy of Allāh (shaytān) sees him (Isa عليه السلام), he would (dissolve), just as salt dissolves in water, but if he (Isa عليه السلام) were not to confront him at all, he would still dissolve completely. However, Allāh has decreed to let him be killed by his hand (Isa's hand), so he would show them his (shaytān) blood on his lance.
